Katter's missing corflutes – not such a mystery says Katter

KAP Leader and Federal Member for Kennedy Bob Katter has counted up to 70 of his election corflute signs that have been removed from roadsides around Far North Queensland, suggesting the thievery has been done at the hands of those threatened by him competing against the major parties given their signs are all still standing.

"We have our eye on you," said Mr Katter who suspects he knows the culprit at hand and warning that CC television footage may be available.

"And we deliver this full warning to you, we're watching and you will feel the full force of the law should you keep going on this way.

"In the meantime, we will do some patrols ourselves and we are asking the police on the highway to keep their eyes open as well."
